ARBITRATION

PLEASE READ THIS SECTION CAREFULLY - IT MAY SIGNIFICANTLY AFFECT YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS, INCLUDING YOUR RIGHT TO FILE A LAWSUIT IN COURT.

Dispute Resolution In the event of any dispute relating to this Agreement, the relationship between Equine Network, LLC ("EN") and you (including but not limited to your membership in the WSTR and/or USTRC, Key Card holder or Patriot Member), or any other dispute between EN and you (including but not limited to disputes regarding any claim, demand, or liability for personal injuries or property damage arising from participation or use and enjoyment of any sponsored event and facilities, claims of negligence, breach of contract, fraud or any claims based upon a written law and any disputes concerning any agents, partners, employees, officers, insurers, related entities, or persons of either you or EN), b both EN and you agree to final and binding arbitration before a single neutral arbitrator (the "Arbitrator") applying New Mexico law, including in connection with any issue relating to the scope or proper interpretation of this arbitration obligation.

Either party may initiate the arbitration process by filing an initiating document with American Arbitration Association (“AAA”), or alternatively a mutually agreed upon arbitrator or arbitration service, under the applicable commercial arbitration rules for the AAA or the mutually agreed upon arbitration service. Unless otherwise required by applicable law, the arbitration will be conducted in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

EN and you agree to share equally in the cost of the arbitration, except that each side is responsible for its own attorney’s fees and costs, unless the Arbitrator determines that a claim or defense was put forward in bad faith or in a frivolous manner, resulting in a reallocation of fees or costs as the Arbitrator may reasonably decide.

Unless this provision is prohibited by applicable law, you expressly represent and agree that in any dispute or arbitration proceeding, you can and will only seek to represent and advance your own interests; you shall be prohibited from seeking to assert a claim on behalf of any other party or person, either on a multi-party, representative, or class action basis; and in no event shall you be entitled to seek punitive or exemplary damages, or consequential or remote damages, in the absence of proof of knowing and intentional misconduct expressly approved or ratified by EN.

It is important that you make an informed decision about the implications of arbitration and that you understand the advantages and disadvantages of forgoing a judicial forum and proceeding with arbitration if a dispute arises. You agree that this dispute resolution process is not required by law, regulation, or ethical standard, but is an important provision to EN that is required in the acceptance of your membership to participate in a WSTR and/or USTRC or Patriot event. By entering into this binding arbitration provision, you agree and acknowledge that:

- You and EN are waiving the right to submit the dispute to a judge or jury, although you and EN both retain the right to seek immediate injunctive or declaratory relief, including relief by ex parte expedited proceedings, in the case of breaches of confidence or violations of law or equity that require immediate judicial intervention in the protection of either, or both, parties’ protected privacy, safety, or ethical rights or interests.
- Pre-arbitration discovery is generally more limited, and different from, the discovery allowed in court proceedings, and you and EN jointly request that the Arbitrator affirmatively prohibit discovery unless it is deemed actually necessary to the preparation of a party’s case, in conformity with principles of due process, with the Arbitrator still directed to impose reasonable time, manner, and location limitations in order to expedite the discovery and overall resolution of the dispute;
- The Arbitrator’s award is not required to include factual findings or legal reasonings, and it may contain factual or legal errors that cannot be reviewed on appeal or through separate legal challenge;
- This Agreement shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 1, et seq. (“FAA”);
- The Arbitrator is entitled to grant any remedy that an administrative agency, court, or jury would be entitled to issue, except for those damages or limitations noted above; and
- Judgment on any arbitration award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction, and the parties’ consent to the jurisdiction of the state or federal district court for the purpose of entry of the Judgment and any requirements contained therein.

By signing this Agreement and becoming a member of WSTR and/or USTRC or a Key Card holder or Patriot Member, you warrant that you have received sufficient information regarding the arbitration process and have had the opportunity to seek any advice from independent counsel in reviewing the Agreement and its arbitration provision, allowing you to make an informed decision with respect to forgoing a judicial forum. In addition to the information about arbitration provided above, the rules and regulations for arbitrations conducted by the AAA are available for review on their website at www.adr.org. If you have any questions, you may contact consult your own independent counsel.

Further, Equine Network, LLC, dba, Patriot Events has the right to refuse entry to anyone for any reason it deems necessary, including but not limited to classification issues.
